

HOWARD COUNTY POLICE DEPARTMENT
DAILY CRIME BULLETIN
MONDAY, JANUARY 26, 2015
Addresses are in hundred blocks.

ROBBERY NON COMMERCIAL

BEAT F2 3000 PONTE VEDRA CT, 1/23 1145 HOME INVASION: As the 14-year-old victim opened the door to a friend, 8-9 male juvenile subjects – some known to the victim - entered the residence uninvited. One subject demanded money. The subjects stole a snowboard which was later recovered. No one was injured. Investigation is continuing.

ARRESTED: Three male juveniles, charged with home invasion, robbery, second-degree assault and theft. 15-7294

BURGLARY COMMERCIAL

BEAT E2 TRU GREEN LANDCARE, 8900 MAIER PL, 1/23 1257: Unknown suspect(s) used bolt cutters to break into two shipping containers. Nothing was stolen. 15-7279

BEAT E2 TRU GREEN LANDCARE, 8900 MAIER PL, 1/25 1117: Unknown suspect(s) used bolt cutters to cut the lock on the entrance gate. Once inside the yard, the suspect(s) entered a dump truck, attached a trailer and filled it with several lawn mowers, snow blowers, weed wackers and leaf blowers. 15-7899

BEAT E4 FREDDY MAC, 9400 BLACK VELVET, 1/5 1558 TO 1/10 1300 LATE REPORTED: The property representative discovered a washing machine, dryer and stove were missing from a vacant residence. No signs of forced entry. 15-7362

BURGLARY NON COMMERCIAL

BEAT B3 6200 BRIAR CT, 1/23 1145 TO 1205: Unknown suspect(s) entered the residence and stole medications and cash. No sign of forced entry. 15-7263

BEAT B1 9500 MELLEN CT, 1/23 1430 DECEPTION: An elderly victim heard an unfamiliar male voice inside the residence and saw an unknown male subject standing in the kitchen. He attempted to engage her in conversation, and offered to seal her driveway. The victim asked him to leave. He got into a white work van and drove off. There were no signs of forced entry and nothing was stolen. No one was injured. 15-7316

SUSPECT: Male, possibly Latino, 5'8 to 5'10, average weight, black hair, dark blue coat.

BEAT D6 11300 LIBERTY ST, 1/25 0950 TO 1400: The victim returned home and discovered the front door was knocked in. Jewelry was stolen. 15-7957

ADDITIONAL SIGNIFICANT INCIDENT

ASSAULT

BEAT D5 5700 Cedar Lane (reported at Howard County General Hospital), 1/25 0515

Officers responded to Howard County General Hospital for a report of a stabbing. According to the 52-year-old male victim, he and a woman were returning to Howard County from Baltimore City, when they observed they were being followed by a vehicle. Both vehicles pulled off the road on Route 29 near Route 108. The male victim reported that he and the driver, whom he had seen earlier in the evening, but did not know by name, exited their vehicles and got into a physical altercation, resulting in the male victim being stabbed, suffering minor injuries. The victim drove to the hospital where he reported the incident to police. Investigation continues. 15-7830

###